BEAUTIFUL Teeth and sweet Breath.
North's Compound Co-al Tooth Powder, is recommended as combining all the separate advantages which are required in a good Powder, for cleaning and whiten ing the teeth, hardening the gums, and removing the tartar without injury to those organs, which is too frequently the case with the popular remedies manufactured and sold through the country. This pieparation is entirely free from actids, and all other corroding and deterious ingredients, which persons cannot be too guarded against inusing. ingreateness, which persons cannot against in using.

This article is an agreeable, useful and elegant preparation, and has been in use for the past 20 years in the private practice of a Dentist at the South, (Br. S. B. South) from whom we obtained the original recipe.

THIRTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

[FIRST SESSION.]

Washington, March 3. SENATE.-Petitions were presented for and gainst Woodsworth's patent, and against Mcormick's patent.

Mr. Miller presented petitions from Ohio, Illnois and Indiana, and New York praying for a law making public lands free to actual settlers. Mr. Wade introduced a petition for a grant of land to aid in the construction of a wagon road from the Mississippi to Oregon.

House-Mr Disney presented resolutions from the Unio Legislature for the construction of a canal around the falls of the Ohio on the Indiana shore.

Mr. Mason remarked that a bill for that purpose would be reported. The House then took up the bill granting land to Missouri, &c.

Mr. Bennett concluded his speech in favor of equal legislation to all States. Mr. Stanley noved the previous question. Mr. Campbell asked for a withdrawal of the motion, in order to give him an opportunity to reply to the charges brought against Ohio and the Western States by Mr. Vance The previous motion was seconded and the motion to recomit the bill, with instructions to report a substitute granting land to the States in need of public inprovement; was rejected-yeas 70, nays 96. The bill was then referred to the committee

f the whole. The House then took up the homestead act, which was debated until adjournment.

We are pleased to notice the activity and stir of business about the Farmer's Tobacco Warehouse, We learn that the excellent prices obtained, and the superior advantages it possesses, in handling and storing tobacco, are fast establishing it as a favorite warehouse with the tobacco growers of the State.

One hundred and thirty-six hogsheads of obacco were sold at the warehouses in our city resterday—the largest sale we have ever reported in this market. Many hogsheads were sold at high rates, as reference to our tobacco market will show.

If A young man by the name of Perry, who was arrested a few days since, at the Galt House, charged with stealing clothes, was discharged yesterday, the grand jury finding no indictment against him.

Thorvaldsen's First Love.

A withered old woman was seated at the upper window of a house, and when the cry was taken up, she raised her wrinkled countenance, and passed her hands over her eyes, as though to clear away the mist of more than seventy winters. An immense procession drew nigh. ters. An immense procession drew nigh corpse being conveyed to its last earthly abiding place. The king of the land, the royal family, the nobility, the clergy, the learned, the brave, the gifted, the renowned, walked after it. The banners of mourning were waved, the trumpets wailed, and ten thousand sabs broke alike from stern and gentle breasts, and tears from the eves of warriors as well as lovely women showered like rain. It was the funeral of Bertel Thorvalsden, with the Danish nation for mourners! And she, the old woman who gazed at it as it slowly wound by-she was Amalie, his first love! Thorvalsden had never married, neither had she!

"An, HIMLER!" murmured the old woman, wiping away tears from a source which for many long years had been dry, how marvellous is the will of God! To think that I should live to behold this sight -l'our, poor Bertel! All that I predicted HIMLEN, there's only one can tell! Poor an

Four years more sped, and one fine Sabbath morning an aged and decrepit p female painfully dragged her weary limbs B through the crowded lower rooms of that wondrous building known as Thorvalsdeu's Museum. She paused not to glance at the matchless works of the sculptor, but crept on ward until she reached an open doorway leading into the inner quadrane, in the centre of which a low tomb of grav marble encloses the mortal remains of him whose hands created the works which fill the edifice. Step by step she drew close to the tomb. and sank on the pavement by its side. Then she laid down her crutch, and pressed her bony hands tightly over her skinny brow. "JA .a!" murmured she: "they told me he lay here, and I praved to God to grant me

THE undersigned, builders and practical mechanics of the city of Louisville, have examined the work manufactured in the extensive Playeling Milt of Messrs. J. N. Breeden & Co., of this city, and with much pleasure bear testimenty to the excellence of the materials used, and the work done by them. Their builders' warerooms contain a very large assortment of Doors, Window Sash, and Venetian Shutters, which we have carefully examined, and do not hesitate to say that they will bear favorable comparison with any work of the kind that we have ever seen. The perfect machinery assed by these gentlemen will make as good work as any done by hand.
